

Chapter 1:- The Beginning of my new life as a high school student

Hey, I am Soma Ayanokouji but people call me Soma. Soma is my first name; my last name is too long so people prefer to call me by my first name.

Today I am starting high school. I am going to study at Raimon Gateway Academy. we call it RG in short. This is not my first day here. I studied my first year of middle school there and 3 years of elementary school there. Technically I studied for 4 years there.

There are 5 years of elementary school and 3 years of middle school. I studied at another school for two years and joined RG and then left RG again in the second year of middle school and again joined in high school.

Every year a big university provides a nice scholarship to the student council president. I want to be the student council president. I studied there for 4 years, and I want to end my school life at that school.

Soma: - why did you call me?

?????: - To remind you, Our high school starts today.

Soma:-I know that very well. Did you call me to say that? I am busy right now. I will see you at school. Bye-

?????: - No No. I called you to tell you that I have been shifted to your area. I am living alone. My parents are going to the States today. We bought a house near your area, so I won't have to use any transportation.

Soma: - oh, nice. One question did you break up with your girlfriend by any chance?

?????: - Nope, we are gonna get married after high school.

Soma: - Nice. So I have to be the third wheel every day.

????: - huh?

Soma: - Don't act like you don't know anything. Your girlfriend applied for RG, and after two days you asked me to apply for RG. Her house is just a few houses away from where I live and you bought a house near my locality, just you two could walk home every day together. Am I not right?

????: - You caught me I guess. I didn't think you would notice these things.

Soma: - I caught you like it was nothing for me. Anyways when are we leaving for school?

????: - we are leaving at 7:45, first, I will come to your place then we get my girlfriend and then we go to school.

Soma: - You're an idiot when it comes to planning. we have to go the opposite way. First, I will go call Asuna then, we will come to your place. How is the plan?

???: - Awesome plan. This is the first time you used Yuuki's last name.

Soma: - I normally call her by the last name. It's just I used to call Her first name while teasing her.
